

MARYLAND
NURSERY, LANDSCAPE
AND GREENHOUSE
ASSOCIATION, INC.

UNIVERSITY OF
MARYLAND
EXTENSION
Solutions in your community

MARYLAND
GROWN
FLOWERS

Commercial Cut Flower Educational Summer Session

Sponsored by: MNLGA, University of Maryland Extension, the Association of Specialty Cut Flower Growers, and the Maryland Cut Flower Growers Association

Date: Tuesday, July 28, 2020

Location: The Perennial Farm in Glen Arm, MD

- 7:30 am – 8:00 am: Registration
- 8:00 am – 8:15 am: About The Perennial Farm
Rick Watson, Owner of The Perennial Farm
- 8:15 am – 9:00 am: Perennial Cut Flowers for Shade
David Dowling, Technical Representative for Ednie Flower Bulbs/Gloeckner
- 9:00 am – 10:00 am: Walking Tour of The Perennial Farm Operation Focusing on Different Varieties for Cut Stems
Kelly Hermann, Head Grower for The Perennial Farm
- 10:00 am – 10:15 am: Diseases Prevalent on Cut Flowers in the Summer
Karen Rane, Plant Diagnostic Clinic Director at Univ. of Maryland
David Clement, Extension Specialist, Univ. of Maryland
- 10:15 am – 10:30 am: Insects and Mites Diagnostics
Stanton Gill, Extension Specialist, Univ. of Maryland
- 10:30 am – 10:45 am: Cut Flower Fertility in Summer
Andrew Ristvey, Extension Specialist, Univ. of Maryland
- 10:45 am – 11:30 am: Peonies and Other Great Perennials and Bulbs Perfect for Cut Stems
Ko Klaver, Botanical Trading Company
- 11:30 am – 12:15 pm: Ranunculus and Anemone Success in the Mid-Atlantic
David Dowling, Technical Representative for Ednie Flower Bulbs/Gloeckner
- 12:15 pm – 1:00 pm: Catered Lunch